

Jake & Cleetus Saga

Part 1

June 13, 2020

Ok so I was in my room minding my business when jakeybakers invited me to watch his final Java class. I was pretty sad and got a little teary eyed when I saw Jake's teacher deliver the final rituals. It was a pretty heart warming experience. I was crying inside so hard, it was that powerful. I could see Jake's screen (because remember that's how I was listening to the speech) when out of no where I heard Cleetus call out to Jake "TIME FOR SEX JAKY JAKY." I was a little shocked but remembered that Jake and Cleetus slept together at night and that Jake's mic was on. Jake was jerking off to furry porn at the moment (not too surprising). Jake had his camera and his screen share and he meant to turn off his camera and keep his screen share but instead he did it the other way around. He kept his camera on. And they started jerking off together! I was really shocked so I quickly disconnected because I didn't want to interrupt their intense love making. Luckily no one else joined the VC and Jake didn't even know about how I saw it. But it was such a traumatizing experience. Never again I want to see two furies jerking off.
